SALAMONIE
WARREN,

HIGH SCHOOL
INDIANA

Dedication

As members of the Senior Class of 1964, we sincerely dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Jerry L. Schwartz, who is respected by all those who know him. He has achieved much success around Warren High, not only in teaching activities, but also through the intimate friendships which have been created by his kindness and thoughtfulness for others. May he always remember us, as we shall never forget him.

Administration

Our Principal

TO STUDENTS, PARENTS, AND FRIENDS:

A school has existed in Salamonie Township since 1834. To Samuel Jones, the leader of a little group of settlers, goes the honor of establishing the first school. He was firm in his opinion that to be a good citizen and subject of the Creator his children must learn to read, write, and master the rudiments of arithmetic.

It may seem strange that 129 years later we go to school for practically the same purposes. The function of school has not changed greatly; it is still to develop the individual in all his traits and talents, to equip him to adjust to and improve his culture.

I wish to congratulate the yearbook staff and advisor for the excellent pictorial presentation of efforts at Salamonie Township.

STANLEE BALLARD! ?#$

Playing footsies, Larry?!

Wanna hear a secret?

Oh, why did I eat those brownies?

And after 2 years, our group had 21% fewer cavities...

Pick me a winner.

It could be your breath!

While the cats away, the mice will play.
